

SYDNEY & NSW TRAINS - IMPORTANT PAB UPDATE

Friday, December 1

The upcoming protected action postal ballot is your chance to stand up for your jobs and fight for a fair Agreement.

Securing Protected Action means that you can take action to protect your conditions and your rights without risking your job. This is extremely important and why everyone must vote.

Voting will open on December 8, and you need to vote as soon as you receive your ballot papers in the mail. Ballot papers should start arriving from the 13th December 2017.

- Thursday 8th December – AEC starts sending out ballot papers
- Wednesday 13th December – Ballot papers start arriving in your postbox
- Friday 13th December 2017 – Call the AEC if you have not received your ballot paper or in the post by this date
- Tuesday 2nd January – Ballots must be posted back by this date to guarantee they are counted
- Monday 8th January – Last day to express post back outstanding ballots
- Wednesday 10th January – Ballot closes

Don't miss out on having your say. Make sure you receive the ballot in your mailbox.

To update your details with the RTBU, go to this link: bit.ly/trainsea

In Solidarity,

Your RTBU team.

Stay up to date by liking us on Facebook.

Authorised: Alex Claassens, RTBU NSW Branch Secretary