

ACTION UPDATE

16th January 2018

Today, we notified Sydney & NSW Trains management of further action.

Action 3 - 24 hour stoppage

This action will start at 00:01am on Monday the 29th January. If you are rostered for a shift that will run from the 28th January into the 29th January or from the 29th January into the 30th January, please call the office on 9264 2511 so that you get information on what to do that is specific to your role.

There will also be further updates with details on members' meeting that are planned for that day.

If management applies to have this action suspended by the Fair Work Commission, information will be sent to you as a priority.

Only RTBU members are protected by law in taking part in this action so make sure you go to bit.ly/rtbujoin and join today!
