

Foreshadowed tolls make rail look better for South Coast commuters

Categories : News

Tagged as : South Coast commuters

Date : 26 July, 2017

Imagine you have a specialist's appointment in the centre of Sydney. Do you take the train? Or do you drive? If the toll structure flagged for the F6 extension is to be believed, the train will be the way to go.

Ten bucks each way, then add parking, fuel and frustration once you come off the F6 extension and enter the fray of Sydney traffic – you're better off on the train.

Read more in the South Coast register